

previous opening day. This indicates the alleys are in fine condition and that the winners this year may have to crack a few records. Chicago's best bowlers are entered in the tournament and are hopeful of coping some of the prize money. The meet will run about three weeks.

Frank Gotch looks enough like Jim Jeffries did in his prime to be his twin brother. His mannerisms and even his voice are like the former heavyweight champion's.

Gotch, who recently came out of retirement and announced that he would wrestle all comers, is training at the Los Angeles Athletic club in Los Angeles for a match in San Francisco with Demetral. The Chicago Greek will tackle Gotch on March 10. Demetral claims to have lost but one match in the past four years, and is considered a high-class man for Gotch to dally with.

Besides mauling several tough young huskies each day, Gotch takes a little turn on the mat with Dan McLeod, wrestling instructor of the Los Angeles Athletic club and former Frank Gotch in action. The world's champion is warming up with Dan McLeod, instructor at the Los Angeles Athletic club. He has a crotch and half-Nelson on Dan.